HALLMARK '82

THE ROAD NOT TAKEN

Two roads diverged in a yellow wood,
And sorry I could not travel both
And be one traveler, long I stood
And looked down one as far as I could
To where it bent in the undergrowth;

Then took the other, as just as fair,
And having perhaps the better claim,
Because it was grassy and wanted wear;
Though as for that the passing there
Had worn them really about the same,

And both that morning equally lay
In leaves no step had trodden black.
Oh, I kept the first for another day!
Yet knowing how way leads on to way,
I doubted if I should ever come back.

I shall be telling this with a sigh
Somewhere ages and ages hence:
Two roads diverged in a wood, and I —
I took the one less traveled by,
And that has made all the difference.

Robert Frost

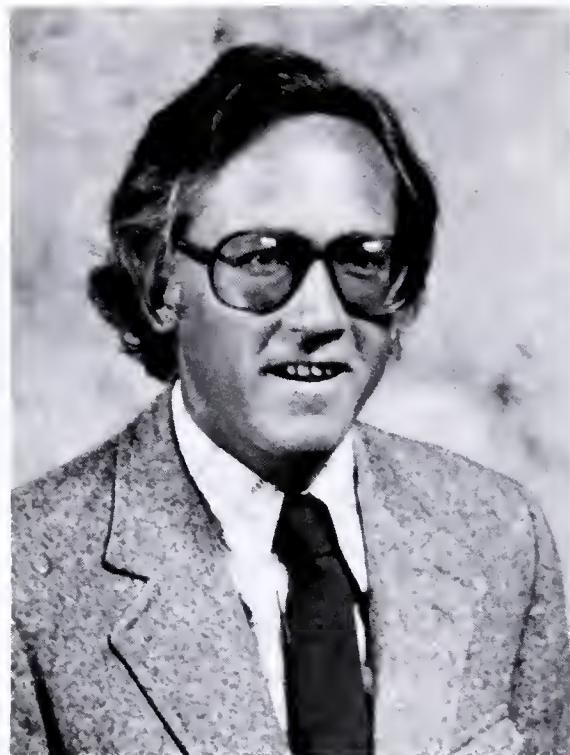

Tom Jackson and Mary Clark have made recent career decisions which affect our school. We are grateful for Mr. Jackson's decision to lead our school community; we welcome him to Rowland Hall-St. Mark's. We will miss Mrs. Clark's guidance and teaching; we wish her luck as she continues her education. We wish to dedicate the 1982 Hallmark to two people who are so dedicated to us.

Live a Life that's Straight and True,
Seek only what is Good.
If this is how your Life is run,
Your troubles will be Few.

Robert J. Welsh

When you get what you want in your struggle for self
And the world makes you king for a day,
Just go to the mirror and look at yourself
And see what the man has to say.

You may be like Jack Horner and chisel a plum
And think you're a wonderful guy,
But the man in the glass says you're only a bum
If you can't look him straight in the eye.

He's the fellow to please — never mind all the rest,
For he's with you clear to the end,
And you've passed your most dangerous, difficult test
If the man in the glass is your friend.

You may fool the whole world down the pathway of years
And gets pats on the back as you pass,
But your final reward will be heartaches and tears
If you've cheated the man in the glass.

Dale Wimbrow

All the adults be kids again
It's a marvelous feeling, I promise you.
Wait a minute, there are some people who are not enjoying themselves,
But that's all right ... you sit back and relax and we'll make idiots of ourselves ... then we'll stop ... point to you ... and you'll stand up and go it alone ... right, then ...
here we go!

Take time to think
For the realm of knowledge
Is neverending.

Take time to live
For each day is filled with new opportunities
That will be gone tomorrow.

Take time to dream
For survival is forever challenging
The powers of your imagination.

But answer came there none —
And this was scarcely odd, because They'd eaten every one.

ACTIVITIES

BAZAAR

The yearbook staff wishes to acknowledge the members of the Home and School Association who worked so hard to make the 1981 Bazaar a success. Thanks go to Connie Weinstock and Ursala Meacham, chairmen; Carol Spurgeon, publicity; Peggy Henrie, food chairman; Cheri Rose, treasurer; Tim Madden and John Young, candy sales; Ram Das Kaur Khalsa, games; Valerie Lambert, rummage sale; Donna McBirnie, Italian booth; Joanne Young, German booth; Rita Billinis, Greek booth; Kristen Madden, Scandinavian booth; Nancy Borgenicht, Israeli booth; Mary Clark, Asian booth; Julie Barrett, British booth; Nancy Cornell, homemade food booth; Ellen Reddick, Mexican booth; Marie-Claude Wrenn, French booth; Diane Gooch, handicrafts; and Don and Connie Millecam, sophomore dinner. We're sure all of those mentioned would like to thank many others.

CHAPEL

Chapel was an important part of our day. Attending Chapel three times a week gave the Upper School the chance to meet together and function as a group. The students at RHSM were given the privilege of hearing announcements in a more personal manner than a public address system offers.

The chapel served another important function — that of the location for the monthly communion services. Father Walt, who conducted the services, reported that although attendance wasn't mandatory, a large group of people chose to be present. On occasion, the Right Reverend E. Otis Charles also honored us by performing the communion services. Much appreciated volunteers performed the duties of the acolytes.

YEARBOOK '82

The loosely structured, yet well organized 1981-1982 Hallmark staff worked admirably under the fearless leadership of Mary Ann Smith, the yearbook advisor. Each time a deadline reared its ugly head, the staff managed to contain their panic and get DPS's into proper order. The new members of the staff performed swimmingly. The result of this well executed teamwork was this fine specimen of a yearbook.

CANDLE AND CAROL

Candle and Carol was as impressive and as beautiful as ever. Richard Babcock, RHSM's talented, versatile music teacher, was more than instrumental in creating this memorable evening. The program was an inspirational beginning to the Christmas holidays. Thanks go to Father Walt, Tony Larimer, George Fox, Tom Jackson, The Rt. Rev. E. Otis Charles, Clay Christiansen, the student processional participants, the choir members, the wind ensemble, and the brass ensemble. Student speakers included Demetrius Cosby, Huong Do, Carlos Padilla, Rosemarie Syms, Yoshio Hashimoto, Tracy Anderson, Chin-Wei Hsu, and Toria Wells. The following musicians entertained us playing solos or duets: Mike Miller, Cindy Manly, Tracy Anderson, Susan Lee, and Dani Hogle.

DEBATE

RHSM's Debate Team displayed forensic finesse throughout the season. The members participated in tournaments at the University of Utah, in the NFL District Fund Raider, in the Copper Classic, in the Utah State Bar Tournament, and at the Weber State Tournament. The State Tournament, which took place in March, ended a remarkable year. Congratulations to members Teryle Goodson, Erin White, Niki Firoozye, Richard White, Kim Pearson, Eric Einersen, Angela Ellsworth, and assistant JuliAnna Smith.

Sophomore Breakfast

Featured at RHSM this theatrical season was the play Dracula. Fittingly enough, the play was performed on Halloween. Tony Larimer, the director, worked diligently; the cast very much appreciated his help and advice. Gina Ravnaas deserved special thanks; she filled in for Mr. Larimer the few times he was unable to attend practices. Jon Morgan served Mr. Larimer as the assistant director, and Ann Denkers served Jon Morgan as the assistant-to-the-assistant director. Mr. Fox designed the imaginative sets. Aiding Mr. Fox were Peter O'Neill, John Boyle, Kyle Sterner, Nat Seeley, Charles Bauer, Mike Begue, Will Gooch, and Bill Owens. Performing an invaluable service were the make-up artists: Tracy Anderson, Raeanne Smith, Juli Smith, and Marie Newman. Everyone involved with the play gave up their time to make the performances successful. The talented cast were as follows:

PLAY

LITERARY MAGAZINE

Under the cosmic sponsorship of Ed Macner, the literary magazine was a blazing success. Things got off to a slow start, but the literary masterpieces of the student body soon began flowing into the magazine's headquarters. The people responsible for organizing the donated material were Jordan Owens, Shireen McSpadden, Erin Player, Kim Pearson, Leslie Saperstein, and Peter O'Neill.

NEWSPAPER

The Rowland Hall-St. Mark's Gazette is the recent literary project tackled by the student body. Rowland Hall students have not published a newspaper since 1972, when the paper was called The Lion. The newspaper, sponsored by Miss Cooke, was published six times this year.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

The Student Council attempted to increase its powers and to improve its effectiveness. Three committees were established within the Council: the Legislative Committee, which drafted a new student constitution; the Student Forum, which acted as a link between the students and administration; and the Activities Committee, which organized various school functions. The Student Council was composed of two members from each grade: Alex Billinis and Robert Claxton, seventh; Mike Miller and David Gray, eighth; Carlos Padilla and Sam Rogan, ninth; Erin White and Suzanne Hoopes, tenth; Susan Davis and Cindy Manly, eleventh; and Juli Smith and Niki Firoozye, twelfth. Miss JaNae Brown served as faculty advisor.

Laura McGough, Susan Lee, and Vicki Newell were our responsible prefects. They organized assemblies and served as study hall proctors, bus proctors, class substitutes, and student counselors. The three prefects demonstrated leadership and commitment to the school.

CLUBS

FENCING CLUB

The Fencing Club, new this year to the list of clubs at RHSM, started meeting in November and continued meeting throughout the year. Practices were held three times a week and usually lasted an hour. Skillful and patient Chin-Wei Hsu, who joined our student body this year, graciously gave up his time to instruct the following members: Erik Goodheart, Alex Kim, John Lee, Bill Owens, Sam Rogan, and Bernd Rosenberger. Mrs. Ammon sponsored the club.

BIKE CLUB

Following in Mr. Coello's tradition, the Bike Club, under the able sponsorship of Mr. Gadette, pedaled off to another fine year. There were several biking excursions up City Creek Canyon in the fall, which prepared the club for the more strenuous excursions of the spring. The members were Greg Smith, Melanie Melcomian, Kristina Obermann, and John Boyle.

RUNNING CLUB

The running club's purpose was to get in shape while having fun. Its members accomplished this goal by running on the avenues once a week, sponsoring a school race, and participating in several races sponsored by neighboring schools and community groups. Led by Dimmis Weller, the group included Jennifer Bagnell, Tiffiny Fyans, Erin Player, Yoshio Hashimoto, Vicki Newell, Shireen McSpadden, Susan Lee, Jordan Owens, Cindy Manly, Huong Do, Steve Feeny, James Williams, Susan Davis, Chip Henneman, and Greg Zeigler.

KARATE CLUB

The main purpose of the Karate Club this year was to develop mental discipline and control. The students learned coordination and breathing exercises using the techniques of the Oriental martial arts. Mr. Gadette taught karate, and Mr. Cooley taught judo, kung fu, and aikido. The club members, disciplined and controlled, were Jack Barnhill, Alex Billinis, Garrett Gregor, Thomas Lin, John Nelson, Greg Smith, Roy Matthies, Sam Rogan, James Williams, and Paul Denkers.

COMPUTER CLUB

The Computer Club had probably more revolutionary changes this year than did any other club (excepting one that ended altogether). The club founded an entirely new form of government. A coup d'etat took place early in the year when Niki Firoozye and Eric Einersen, the "biumvirate," established a dictatorship, ruling by edict entirely. If you have read this far, it is time to state that Niki, urged on by Eric, wrote this copy. Anyway, the Computer Club members were Niki and Eric, Jeremy and David Gray, Nat Seeley and John Player, Jimmie Bauer and Eric Bodnar. We should mention too our curricular addition, a computer science course taught by Mr. Gadette.

WILDERNESS CLUB

I know that the word "miraculous" is regarded dubiously in scientific circles because of past quarrels with theologians. The word has been defined, however, as an event transcending the known laws of nature. Since, as we have seen, the laws of nature have a way of being altered from one generation of scientists to the next, a little taste for the miraculous in this broad sense will do us no harm. We forget that nature itself is one vast miracle transcending the reality of night and nothingness. We forget that each one of us in his personal life repeats that miracle.

Loren Eiseley

RHSM welcomed the new Wilderness Club under the direction of Greg Zeigler. Members included Michael Begue, Eric Bodnar, David Gray, Elisabeth McOmber, and Erin Player.

SPORTS

GIRLS' TENNIS TEAM

Regionally undefeated! Those were the words we proudly used to describe the girls' tennis team. The girls started practice in the summer, and by October 3, the green and white clad members were able to place 3rd in the state tournament over seventeen schools. Angela Ellsworth, third singles; Susan Davis and Suzanne Hoopes, first doubles team; and Joelyn Matuszak and Juli Smith, second doubles team, were all newcomers to tournament play. They impressively placed 5th at the state tournament. Susan Lee, first singles, skillfully took 2nd place at state. Showing great determination, Vicki Newell, our second singles, managed to capture 1st place. Congratulations all.

GIRLS' VOLLEYBALL

All grade levels were represented on the upper school girls' volleyball team — the team which impressed the school community with their sportsmanship and playing ability. Practices and games for these spikers began in August and continued through October. Those who participated were Tracy Anderson, Susan Davis, Huong Do, Dani Hogle, Laurel Ingham, Susan Lee, Joelyn Matuszak, Shireen McSpadden, Dena Ned, Vicki Newell, Jordan Owens, Juli Smith, and Raeanne Smith. Our thanks to you, Mr. Wortham, coach, and Huong Do, captain. We were pleased to have this school team represented in intermural competition.

SOCCKER TEAM

In the fall of 1981, the Soccer Team kicked off, so to speak. By the time spring came, Coach Peter Twichell, several new players, and a wave of enthusiasm had shaped a good team. Students were kicking soccer balls around campus during lunch in anticipation of running the field, scoring goals, and having a great time. The team members were Lee Pembleton, Michael Begue, Tim Brown, Steve Brown, Chris Hogle, Matt Berenson, John Carpenter, Jeremy Gray, Bill Owens, Carsten Zieger, Yoshio Hashimoto, Ellen Seeley, and Jennifer Bagnell.

BOYS' TENNIS TEAM

In keeping with a long tradition, the Boys' Tennis Team bounced off to a love — ly start. Early in the spring, after an inspirational talk by Mr. Zeigler, Mrs. Ammon led the boys to weekly practices. After much work and even more sweat, the team performed like a well-oiled machine. As of this writing, however, the team had not yet had a chance to prove themselves in an actual competition. Good luck to Michael Begue, Paul Denkers, Eric Carlson, Charles Bauer, Richard White, Tim Brown, Ernie Lemmen-Meyer, David Brown, Kirk Kringel, and Rob Claxton.

FOUR SQUARE

WINTER SPORTS

As in years past, skiing was the most popular winter sport. With record snowfalls at the resort, the skiers couldn't help enjoying themselves. Every Friday, two large busses deposited the eager skiers at Brighton, where they spent the afternoon. Whether the skiers were paralleling, snowplowing, or just trying to stay on their feet, they all had a pleasurable experience. Mr. Cooley and Mr. Jackson had their hands full as sponsors of the downhill skiing program. In a related program, Mr. Ziegler and Mrs. Gray headed a robust group of students and faculty on a weekly cross-country trek. The cross-country skiers were able to enjoy nature in relative solitude and were able to test their endurance as they glided over snow covered mountains.

Another popular winter sport was bowling. Each Friday Mr. Koetter led the six bowling teams to Rancho Lanes. In a ritualistic sequence, each bowler stepped to the line and skillfully let the ball take its course. Strikes, spares, and gutter-balls determined the victors of the ten week competition between the teams. However, there were no losers, since all the bowlers had a splendid time.

Several students found a mild euphoria at Hygeia Ice Rink. Controlling direction and speed with cool steel blades against cold ice, the skaters were quite entertained and contented. Skating in figure-eights or scoring a goal in a hockey game offered the thrill of accomplishment to the skaters. Mr. Wortham and Mrs. Carey supervised and joined activities on the rink.

Not far from Hygeia, under the sponsorship of Mr. Larimer and Mr. Fox, the Rowland Hall roller skaters invaded the Classic Roller Rink. The soon-to-be skaters attached the small wheels to their feet and rolled off for a good time. With the disco lights flashing, the winds of destiny blew through the skater's hair. In short, the 1982 roller skating season rolled along smoothly.

Meanwhile, back at the ranch, a new program was entering the winter sports tradition. Mrs. Ammon led a group of ninth through twelfth grade girls and a few faculty members through a series of aerobic exercises in the school gym. Stretching and twisting to the latest pop tunes, the girls quickly strengthened and shaped up. The popularity of the aerobics program may well assure it a permanent position in future winter sports activities.

Even though there was a wide variety of sports from which to choose, some students preferred individual activities. The beauty of the winter sports program is the fact that students in some cases can tailor activities to their special interests or needs. The independent sports ranged from skiing to equestrian pursuits.

There is nothing more beautiful than a rainbow, but it takes both rain and sunshine to make a rainbow.
If life is to be rounded and many-colored like the rainbow, both joy and sorrow must come to it. Those who have never known anything but prosperity and pleasure become hard and shallow, but those whose prosperity has been mixed with adversity become kind and gracious.
